

When using the trigger with the Spyder VS1, VS2 or MR1, insert the spring into the front pocket. Do not use the included set screw.

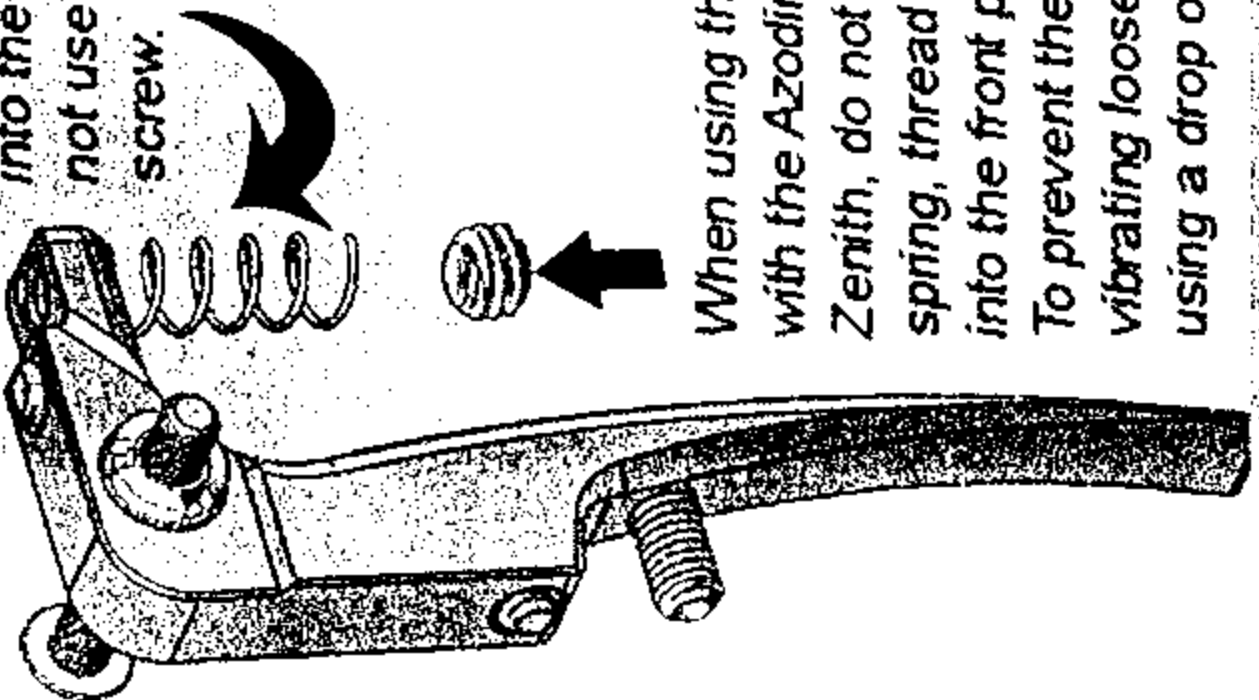

When using the trigger with the Azodin Blitz or Zenith, do not use the included spring, thread the set screw into the front pocket until snug. To prevent the screw from vibrating loose, we recommend using a drop of Loctite 242.

When using the trigger with the Spyder VS1, VS2 or MR1, insert the spring into the front pocket. Do not use the included set screw.

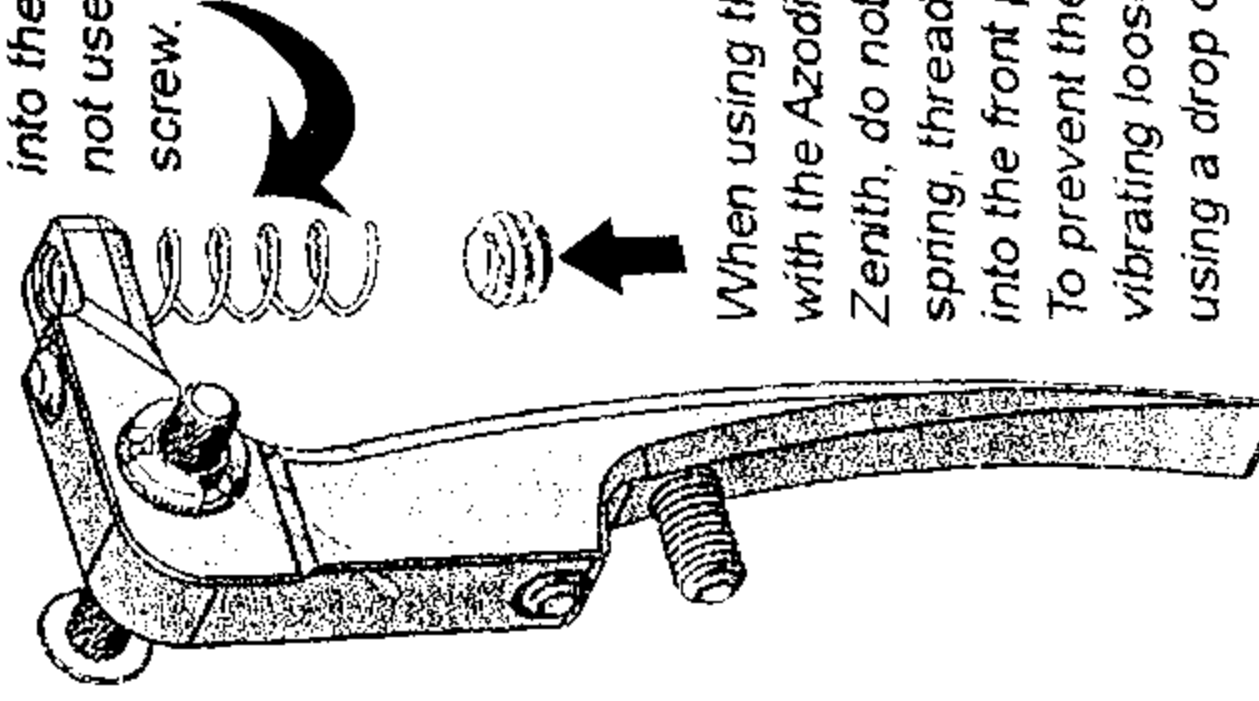

When using the trigger with the Azodin Blitz or Zenith, do not use the included spring, thread the set screw into the front pocket until snug. To prevent the screw from vibrating loose, we recommend using a drop of Loctite 242.

When using the trigger with the Spyder VS1, VS2 or MR1, insert the spring into the front pocket. Do not use the included set screw.

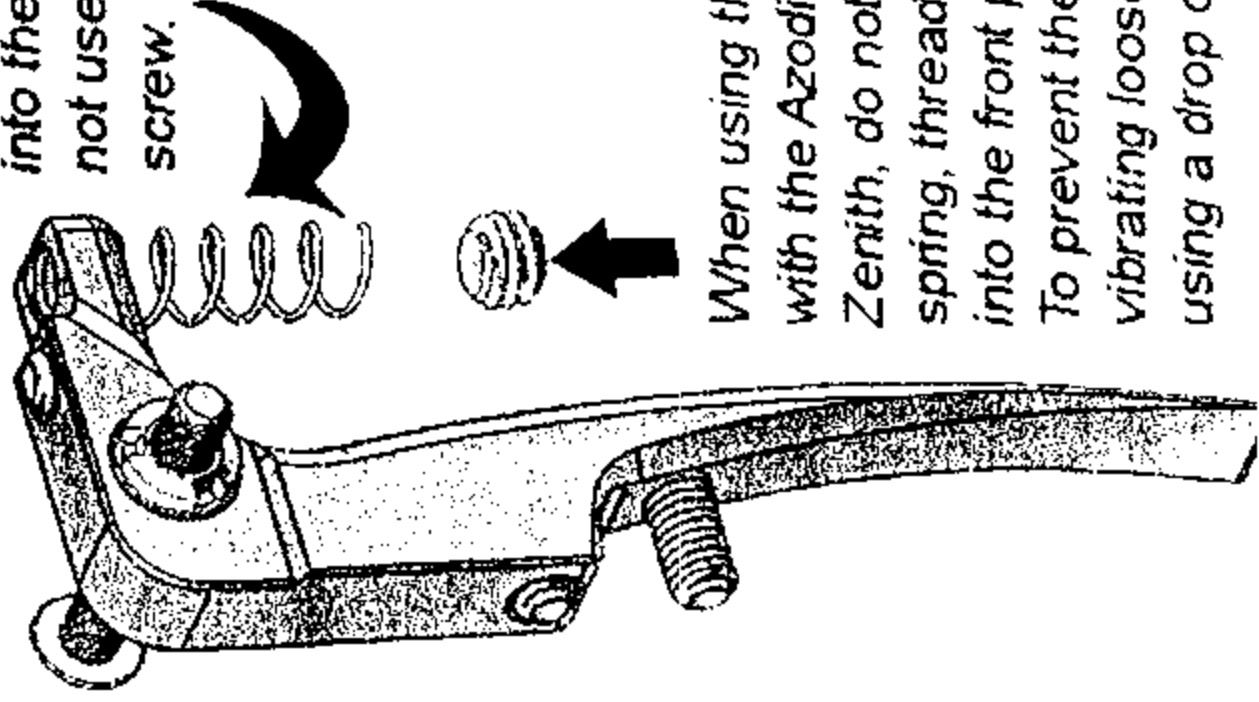

When using the trigger with the Azodin Blitz or Zenith, do not use the included spring, thread the set screw into the front pocket until snug. To prevent the screw from vibrating loose, we recommend using a drop of Loctite 242.

When using the trigger with the Spyder VS1, VS2 or MR1, insert the spring into the front pocket. Do not use the included set screw.

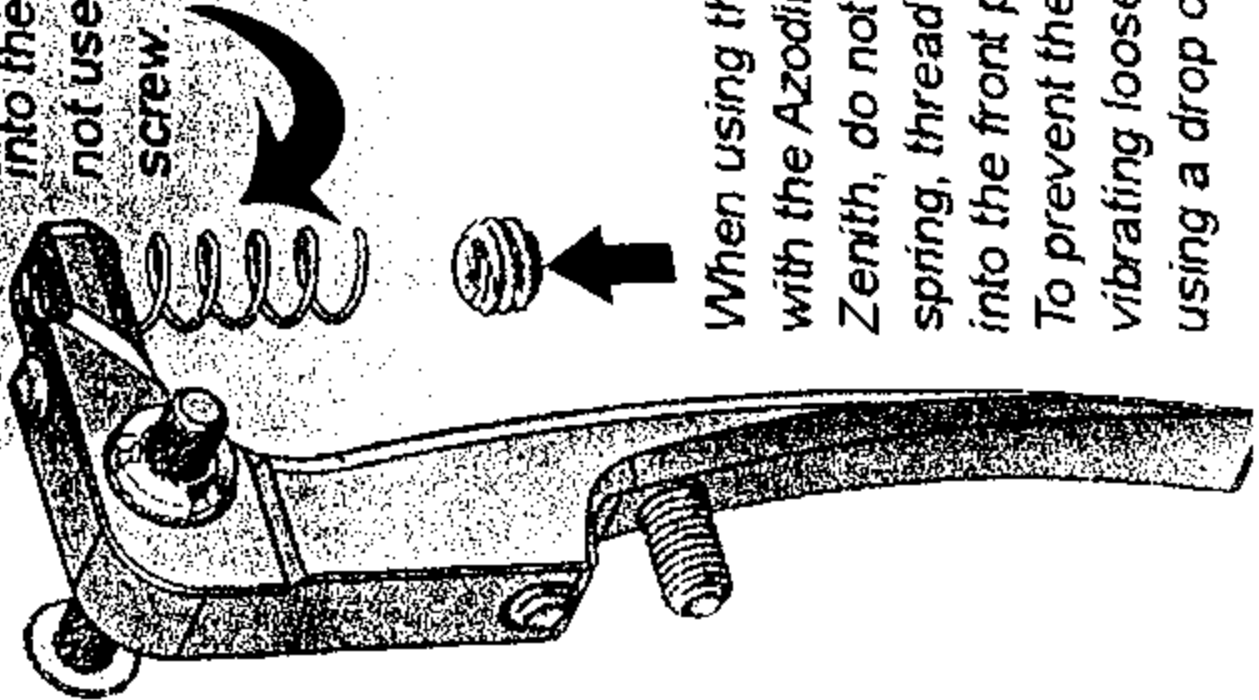

When using the trigger with the Azodin Blitz or Zenith, do not use the included spring, thread the set screw into the front pocket until snug. To prevent the screw from vibrating loose, we recommend using a drop of Loctite 242.

When using the trigger with the Spyder VS1, VS2 or MR1, insert the spring into the front pocket. Do not use the included set screw.

When using the trigger with the Azodin Blitz or Zenith, do not use the included spring, thread the set screw into the front pocket until snug. To prevent the screw from vibrating loose, we recommend using a drop of Loctite 242.

When using the trigger with the Spyder VS1, VS2 or MR1, insert the spring into the front pocket. Do not use the included set screw.

When using the trigger with the Azodin Blitz or Zenith, do not use the included spring, thread the set screw into the front pocket until snug. To prevent the screw from vibrating loose, we recommend using a drop of Loctite 242.